

Thank you for your interest in volunteering for the National D-Day Memorial Foundation. We are delighted that you are considering sharing your time, knowledge, and energy with us!

Volunteers

play a crucial role in the efficient operation of the Memorial; through the time and commitment of volunteers, the Foundation is able to fully provide a memorable and educational experience for our visitors.

By becoming a “voice” of the Memorial, your commitment, enthusiasm, and knowledge will allow the Foundation to continue to achieve its goals and fulfill its mission of honoring the valor, fidelity, and sacrifice of the Allied Forces on D-Day, June 6, 1944. With your help, we can continue to preserve the lessons and legacy of D-Day and the WWII generation.

“Especially rewarding has been the opportunity to meet and talk with many D-Day veterans. I also enjoy the interaction with the public, staff, and other volunteers. It is specifically gratifying to meet some of the foreign visitors whose countries were allies in the D-Day invasion. I heartily recommend volunteering at the Memorial.”

- Jim Richardson,
Tour Guide Volunteer

Tour Guides

Guides provide guests with forty-five minute walking tours with general information about D-Day, World War II, and the Memorial. Guided walking tours are scheduled on the hour beginning at 10:30AM with the last tour departing at 3:30PM. Additional tours are scheduled by appointment. Guides receive training prior to becoming a tour guide.

Work/Volunteer Experience:

“I worked in the gift store for many years and it allowed me to meet people from all over the world. I especially enjoyed talking with our veterans. There is no greater satisfaction than personally thanking the men and women who have served and continue to serve our country.”

- Diane Kidd, Gift Store

Gift Shop Attendants

Gift shop attendants may chose to volunteer as cashiers or baggers in the Memorial Store. Cashiers receive appropriate training for operating store registers. Gift store volunteers also help with merchandizing and with greeting and assisting guests during their visit.

“I’ve seen good and bad during times of war and enjoy sharing my experiences. I see myself as a hostess of the National D-Day Memorial. I love to make visitors feel comfortable; helping is my goal. After 9 years with the Memorial, it just makes me feel good, I enjoy it.”

- Dot Koester,
Information Table Volunteer

Information Table or Welcome Booth
Attendants

Information table attendants are stationed at a table on the deck of the gift store to answer general questions about the Memorial. Welcome Booth attendants greet visitors, provide directions, and count guests as they enter the monument.
